

Count Us In: Before You Watch—True/False

- A. What do you know about the census? Before you watch Count Us In, do this True/False activity. Write true if you think the sentence is true. Write false if you think the sentence is false.
1. The census asks your age. _____
 2. The census only asks about the adults in your home. _____
 3. The Census Bureau is not allowed by law to give your information to anyone—not ICE, not the tax people, not the police, and not even your landlord. _____
 4. The more people who are counted, the more representatives we get to fight for our rights in Washington, DC. _____
 5. The census happens every year. _____

After You Watch

- B. After you watch Count Us In, re-read the sentences above. Do you want to change any of your answers? Which sentence did the video not talk about?
- C. Read the Census Factsheet. Write at least two facts about the 2020 Census that you learn from the factsheet that you didn't learn from the video. (Click here: Census Factsheet.)

Count Us In: Before You Watch—Picture Discussion

On the following pages are four pictures from Count Us In. There are three questions under each picture:

1. What do you see in this picture?
2. What do you think is going on in this picture?
3. What do you see that makes you say that?

Look at the pictures and write some ideas to share with your classmates online. Here are some additional questions to think about:

4. Who do you think is in the picture?
5. Where do you think they are?
6. What do you think happened before the picture?
7. What do you think will happen next?
8. What do you think the person or people in the picture is/are saying?
9. Write 1-3 questions about anything you want to know about the situation in the picture.

The purposes of this activity are to build your vocabulary, make predictions about the videos, and to give reasons for your ideas. You can write your answers, or share your ideas in a group discussion online.

After You Watch

Look at the pictures again. Choose one of the pictures and write a summary of the scene in the picture. Write what the person or people is/are saying in the picture. Share your writing and ideas with your classmates online.
